

The American Friends of the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba leads unique curated trips to Cuba for small groups throughout the year. These thoughtfully customized tours offer an insider's view of the thriving Cuban arts community. Our partnership with the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba, a uniquely non-governmental organization located in Havana, gives us unparalleled access to Cuba's contemporary arts scene.

Travel Schedule 2019

Havana Celebrates Its 500th Anniversary and "Baila en Cuba" Festival

On November 16, 2019 Havana will celebrate a rare milestone that few cities in the Western Hemisphere have reached: the Cuban capital will commemorate its 500th anniversary. Join AFLFC in wishing the city a "happy birthday" and as we attend the once-in-a-lifetime art exhibitions, music and related events being planned for the special day. Then, November 17-22, "Baila en Cuba" arrives in Havana, offering workshops, concerts, and other events that celebrate the art of salsa.

5-day/4-night trip: November 15-19, 2019

The 41st International Festival of New Latin American Cinema

Every December cinephiles flock from across the globe to catch up with the breakout stars and established masters of Latin American cinema at one of the region's largest film festivals. AFLFC travelers get VIP festival access, with entry into all screenings, special events, parties, and executive accommodations at Havana's historic Hotel Nacional, which houses the international talent participating in the festival.

5-day/4-night trip: December 4-8, 2019

7-day/6-night trip: December 4-10, 2019
